

Support to meet the needs on the field

Planète Urgence is an NGO of international solidarity and environmental protection.

Nearly 400 missions to be filled in all areas of expertise: IT, marketing, finance, agriculture, teaching, accounting, engineering, crafts.

« My Congé Solidaire® in Madagascar was MAGIC! Everything went wonderfully well and I only dream of one thing: going back. [...]

As for the organization and supervision of Planète Urgence, everything is perfect and very reassuring. Thank you for giving me this chance. »

Maryline,
volunteer in Madagascar

Association of general interest

Since 2000, Planète Urgence sends volunteers around the world for international solidarity missions from 2 weeks to 1 year.

«We work to ensure a longterm social impact with our partners in the field.

Supporting local organizations and their projects is the basis of the action of the association that offers to combine work with an intercultural dimension.

Exchange, balanced experience, proximity and sustainability characterize our volunteering missions.»

Amandine Hersant,
General Manager

Go on a Congé Solidaire®, international solidarity mission

What is the Congé Solidaire® ?

It is a initiative that allows any employee to go 2 weeks on a volunteering mission on their own time in Africa, Asia and Latin America to share their skills.

A program financed by the employer*

A mission with Planète Urgence is :

- The assurance of being useful: an impact in line with an expressed need.
- Preparation for departure and secure support throughout the mission.
- A unique human and cultural experience.

*Conditions and expenses taken in charge depending on the structure.
